

College Navigation

Demi Ruder, LICSW | Director of Autism Services | 617-691-1705 | druder@workinc.org

WORK Inc. college navigators help individuals identify supports or skills needed for them to be successful in post-secondary college programs.

Our staff also have their own personal familiarity with the college experience, both socially and academically.

This service may include support with:

